pices of the Raleigh Choral Society, It being conceded that never in the history of the State has there been brought together such an array of musical forces as will be assembled for this event. It will include the New York Symphony Orchestra, of fitty musicians, under the leadership of Walter Damrosch; the Raleigh Orchestra of thirty musicians, under Gustav Hagedorne. There will be a children's chorus of two hundred and fifty voices. Then there will be the members of the Raleigh Choral Society, consisting of over one hundred of the best and most trained voices of the city. The great festival is to consist of four concerts—three evening and one afternoon. First will be an organ redital, assisted by Master Causlay Polk, soprano. On the second evening there will be a chorus and orchestral concert by the Choral Society, the Raleigh Orchestra and quartet of soloists, the first half of the program being composed of choral, orchestral and solo numbers and the last half Rossini's masterplece. "The Stabat Mater." Friday night the children's chorus, the Raleigh Orchestra and the special artists, Miss Keys, Mr. Harper and Master Polk will be introduced. Then, on the evening of May 3d, will be the culmination of the festival in a symphony concert by the New York Symphony Corchestra, with Mrs. DeMoss and Lee Schultz as soloists, thus terminating one of the most elaborate musical festivals ever attempted in North Carolina. The relitroids are to give special rates of one fare plus 25 cents throughout a wide territory in the State for the affair, and hundreds of yisitors from every part of this State and from Virginia are expected.

The Woman's Club of Raliegh gave an informat house warming Monday and Tuesday evenings in honor of the opening of the new club house recently purchased, on Salisbury Street—the Ledge property. Later the club intends to creet a modorn club house on the property. BEDFORD CITY BEDFORD CITY, March 23.—Mrs. Nelson Sale and Mrs. William Tudor Yancey have been appointed by the president, Mrs. S. Griffin, to represent the William R. Terry Chapter as hostess at the building of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the Jamestown Exposition. Mrs. Charles L. Mosby has been selected as alternate; a second has yet to be chosen.

federacy at the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Charles L. Mosby has been selected os alternate; a second has yet to be chosen.

The W. R. T. Chapter, which is an organization numbering more than a hundred members, is now directing its chief efforts to securing funds for erecting a monument to the memory of the Confederate soldiers of Bedford and already has more than three thousand dollars in hand for the purpose, fifteen hundred of which was appropriated by the Board of Supervisors of Bedford.

The location and design for the monument have not yet been selected, but this will be done in due time by the joint compittees of the Joseph E. Johnston Camp of Confederate Veterans and the local chapter of U. D. C. This committee consists of Major S. Griffin, Hon. T. S. West, Adjutant W. H. Mosby, Messrs, N. C. Luck and John H. Huddleston, of the camp; Mrs. Nannie Hulter Griffin, Mrs. Groze Tunstall Sale, Mrs. Myrtle Dinwiddle Phillips, Mrs. Mary Bell Claytor and Mrs. Ellen Davis Gregory, of the W. R. Terry Chapter, Major Griffin is chairman, Mrs. Phillips treasurer, and Mrs. Gregory secretary. The financial committee is composed of Mr. W. H. Mosby, chairman; Capt. T. S. West and Captain N. C. Luck.

Soon after the close of the Civit War the Ladies' Confederate Memorial Association of Bedford, the second organization of the kind instituted in Virginia, arected a monument to the Confederate soldiers, about four hundred in number, who had died in the hospitals here, but none of the soldiers of this town or county were buried in the soldiers' cemetary where the monument stands, and it is to do honor to the heroes of Bedford, who were among the first in the field and the last to accept surrender, that it has been determined to erect a suitable monument in hronse or stops that shall tell in enduring characters to future generations the story of their valor and sorifice.

Perhaps there are few places where Lent has been determined to ferre a suitable monument in hronse or stops that shall tell in enduring characters to future g sacrifice.

Perhaps there are few places where Lent has been so strictly observed as in Bedford's capital. There have been no social happenings at all. The Lentan services at St. John's Episcopal Church have been wall attended, aspecially by the female-contingent of the congregation, and the church, with its complete renovations and improvements, has been much appreciated and enjoyed.
